

Takaungu Private House is essentially on the beach. Having lived there for many years the houses represent the 'comfort of home' with the freedom of a long white beach!

Takaungu Private House situated on a small bluff overlooks the beach and the Indian Ocean. It has three en- suite double bedrooms built around a small swimming pool offering comfortable accom for 6 although extra beds can be added if required.

The house is fully staffed, has an excellent cook and has security. www.crocodileracers.com

Takaungu private house is set on a shared plot of land consisting of 2 houses that can be booked together for larger groups, they both offer stunning sea views, far away from noisy hotels and beach boys. (Takaungu main house sleeps an additional 12 pax - and will be listed soonest on the site)

The beach is virtually private with the only traffic being a few fishermen at dawn. Fresh fish is bought up to the house daily at your request and prepared by excellent staff.

Takaungu private house has electricity, freezers and fridges and the wonderful staff will prepare mouthwatering meals. You have not lived until you have tried Taku's lemon cake or Bakari's fish and chips.

You will be taken back to the time when the coast was untouched and free of commerce.

- Takaungu private house is a bungalow and sports a large sitting/dining room, huge verandas set around the small swimming pool and three double rooms.
- The Master bedroom (ensuite) is located inside the house.
- The twin bedroom (ensuite) and double bedroom (separate bathroom) are set on the left hand side of the house (courtyard style)
- All three bedrooms look on to the swimming pool and the sea beyond. Sea views for all! One minute from bed to sea.
- All rooms have fans, there is no air conditioning but a prevailing gentle sea breeze will have you drifting off happily to sleep.
