

Naiberi River Campsite & Resort Eldoret is located 16 km from Eldoret, 400 metres off the tarmac on the Eldoret - Kaptagat - Eldama Ravine road, Naiberi is truly nature's own creation, designed to take it's guests as far back as the stone age with a little touch of modern day luxury. It is created on a hilly forest tribal land, which was once home to members of the ancient Sirikwa tribe. Preserved on the site are excavations with stone sides, commonly called Sirikwa holes, which are believed to have been roofed and occupied by the inhabitants of a bygone age.

Accommodation

At Naiberi, we offer various types of accommodation each designed to suit individual choice and lifestyle.

CAMPING

A well maintained lush green lawn is set aside for the campers to pitch up their own tents. Specially designed outdoor bandas, with thatched roofs, are available for visitors who prefer self cooking. Changing rooms, clean flush toilets, slate walled hot showers and stone carved wash basins provide a little touch of luxury for the campers.

DORMITORY

Overlooking the gardens, this spacious dormitory with comfortable double decked beds allows accommodation for up to twenty guests. Facilities include hot water showers, flush toilets and wash basins.

LOG CABINS

The eco-friendly treetop image log cabins, solidly built from timber off cuts, cedar wood and palm thatched roof, are an example of pleasing simplicity and quiet luxury. Each cabin comprises of two single beds and a private bathroom. One can spend hours sitting on the extensive verandah just lounging, reading, viewing the scenic landscape and stargazing at night.

EXECUTIVE ROOMS

On higher ground, fifty metres from the Naiberi River, constructed from natural thatch, stone and precious cedar wood, these rooms are designed for ultimate luxury. The large attractive wooden windows allow a wide angle breath taking view of the grounds with blooming shrubs, indigenous plants and trees. These spacious elegantly furnished airy rooms with luxurious beds and bathrooms offer refined accommodation and privacy. The open - sided verandah with a high roof is relaxingly furnished with cushion chairs. Ideal for afternoon tea, reading or just appreciating the landscape and enjoying the sound of flowing water from the Naiberi River.

Stone Cave

A brisk walk through a stone walled tunnel with green plants and hanging lanterns, leads to an astonishing modern day cave with waterfalls, streams, stone pillars and wooden bridges. In the cave, it is a wonderful experience to enjoy a drink of one's choice, or a romantic sundowner by the log fire, at this well stocked bar in a truly imaginative setting. The spacious living area on the lower level, with a large sofa and traditional comfy cushioned chairs amidst running water streams is ideal for soothing relaxation. Other facilities in the cave include a pool table, darts, a club type card table for eight, board games and digital satellite television.

MEALS

Meals, prepared by a well experienced chef are served to guests' convenience in designated dining areas. Special care is taken to ensure that the cosmopolitan cuisine is of the highest quality and caters to individual taste, using fresh ingredients.

DINNING IN THE CAVE

Dining in the covered yet open-sided sun room with panoramic views of the water ponds, garden and natural forest, is absolutely fascinating.
