

La Belle Inn - Naivasha, Kenya

La Belle Inn is found in the High Street of Naivasha town, a long verandah stretches along the whole front of the building, giving a good vantage point to watch the comings and goings of what's happening in this cute little town.

The hotel has 10 standard, self contained double rooms with bath and shower, offering comfortable accommodation especially for small groups and individual travelers. There is a 30-seat dining room offering both local and Continental cuisine. Snacks and take-away meals also available. www.crocodileracers.com

One of La Belle Inn's main selling points, is that it's just about the only public restaurant in Naivasha, where you can eat European style food! (Pizza, steak and chips etc). It's a relaxed and popular restaurant and bar and the menu is varied and surprisingly good. It's a popular meeting place for wealthy Naivasha locals and for tourists passing through.
