Olerai Guest House Naivasha has five exquisite en suite double bedrooms, fresh farm food, charming staff, wonderful climate, abundant bird life, superb excursions and walks midst throngs of wild animals. Three to four days on the farm is the best way to unwind to get into an Africa mode before moving on to other adventures in the wilder lands of Kenya.

Breakfast at Olerai Guest House Naivasha is always sumptuous, fresh and colorful. Lunch is served on the beautiful Crescent Island with multiple wild animals and birds all around. It is quite spectacular. Dinner is by the crackling fire under the star-filled dome of the night.

Serves excellent home-made farm grown fresh organic vegetables and meat. Lovely staff, plenty of water and electricity. Safaricom coverage available.

There are no rigid timetables at Olerai Guest House Naivasha. You can rise at dawn with the fish eagles and sunshine, step into Olerai's African gondola and drift along the lake-edge alive with birds and dozing hippos, or scramble over the back hills of the farm, lush with wild herbs, swim in the big tropical pool or play golf a few miles from the farm.
