

Naishi Guest House Lake Nakuru National Park

Location: Nakuru District, Rift Valley Province. 160 km north-west of Nairobi

Accommodation: Formerly the warden's house and set amongst acacia trees with magnificent views across the Park; the accommodation comprises the main house and a separate annex. The main house has two triple bedrooms (each with one double bed and one single bed). The Annex has two single bedrooms (each with one single bed). www.crocodilercers.com

Bathroom: The main house has a bathroom/WC. There is also an outside latrine. The annex has a shower and a WC.

Sitting room: The main house has a tastefully furnished sitting room with a log fire and a door leading to a loggia-style veranda. The annex has no sitting room.

Dining area: The main house has a spacious open –plan dining area leading off the kitchen and sitting room.

Kitchen: The main house has an open-plan kitchen with gas cooker (stove and oven), refrigerator, kitchen utensils, cutlery, crockery and glasses.

Provided: Caretaker, kerosene lamps, blankets, pillows, bed linen, mosquito nets, towels, soap, and toilet tissue. Electricity by generator from 7.00 p.m. to 10.00 p.m.

Park highlights: This world-renowned Park features a lake famous for its flamingo population.

Activities: Picnics, nature trails and driving circuits.

Wildlife: Includes; rhino, hippo, lion and leopard.

Birds: 450 species and, at times, over 1.5 million flamingo.