

Lake Turkana Fishing Lodge is quaint and charming situated at Kalokol on the western shores of Lake Turkana. Ideal for fishing for Nile Perch and tiger fish in the lake and visits to Central Island. Situated on a spit at the mouth of Ferguson's Gulf, the Lodge is surrounded by water on three sides and access is by boat across the Gulf to its sandy beach. Visitors encountering this remote lake, regardless of the number of previous visits, continue to sense that awe-inspiring atmosphere which has become synonymous with its romantic name, the Jade Sea.

Accommodation & Room Types:

Accommodation comprises of sixteen individual rustic timber cabins of size 24 x 10 feet, each of which is self contained with a bathroom (shower/toilet/sink) and a large verandah size 24 x 10 feet affording a magnificent view of the lake; one twin family cabins unit; and one, two-bed roomed VIP unit. Water supplied to the rooms and common facilities is alkaline and untreated -pumped directly (when the pumps are working!) from the lake. Expansive lake view gives an impression of an oceanfront location.
