

Garden house is one of Shela Houses located in Lamu, Kenya. A small house situated on the edge of Shela Village, alongside the dunes that fringe the long stretch of Shela beach. It stands on the corner of a small walled garden and is screened by large neem trees full of birds.

Garden house has a ground floor dining and seating area and a shaded rooftop baraza (traditional sitting area) with an open terrace and sun beds. On two floors there are two doubles and one twin bedroom. From the rooftop in front of the master bedroom you can enjoy the view into the garden.