

The Ritchie House is a large Arab-style double-storey home situated on the Marine Park Beachfront of Kenya. This peaceful retreat offers comfortable self-catering accommodation ideal for a family of 10.

Ritchie House has five bedrooms, two of which are upstairs and three are downstairs. The thatched roof house is spacious and offers open space for air to move freely, cooling the house during the warm days. The large patio features a large table where guest can enjoy meals as well as seating for afternoon teas, or simply relax outside and read a book. www.crocodileracers.com

The three staff members at the house are there to assist you with housekeeping, cooking and gardening. Securicor security services provides the security for the house with emergency buttons within the house.