

Mara Sokonoi Camp Maasai Mara

Located 250km from Nairobi city and via Siana airstrip that is 5 min drive served by two airlines every day, Mara Sokonoi is a tented camp set along natural seasonal meandering river in Siana Conservancy in the The Masai Mara.

Accommodation

Accommodation is in a tent with bathroom en-suite, solid wood beds, beddings & pillows. It is built with all the comforts of home, including bathrooms ensuite with flush toilets, hot showers, beds with pillows, sheets, blankets and mosquito nets, and porches with armchairs.

There are large (40 sqm) self-contained tents, with supply of hot water that is heated by briquette fuel boosters and are lit by solar batteries. Beddings are quilt covers of fine cotton linen. The tents have veranda that is set discreetly facing the riverine vegetation and suitable for ultimate privacy www.crocodileracers.com

Also offer a beautiful self-contained traditional Maasai hut built by the local women that contains two bedrooms and a small lounge.

Dining

Mara Sokonoi Camp mess is a special place of elegance in the bush. It consists of a fine dining area plus lounge with a library and a bar and is raised so that guests can have a beautiful view of the sunset and offers camp fires right in front of the mess.

Activities

Game walks guided by our trained guides accompanied by sturdy Maasai warriors

Cultural visits to the local Maasai community villages.

Game watching in the Mara. From the big five to small game, birds and flora.

Tailored game drives early in the morning and late afternoon

Night game drives, bush dinners and sundowners.