

Acacia Camp is the only tented camp of its kind in the Maasai Mara, in that it caters to the need of a wide range of clientele, from the adventure seeker to corporate clients and even schools and other groups.

A stone throw away from the reserve's Olelemutia Gate, and only 15k from Sekenani Gate, you'll find Acacia Camp nestled on six acres of manicured ground sprinkled generously with Acacia trees and other floral that's unique to this savannah country.

The camp fences the scenic Maguarra Hills and the stream that meanders by the bottom of the camp is particularly attractive feature, not only to the campers, but also to the game that drops by for a quenching drink. www.crocodileracers.com
