

Aruba Mara Camp is located near Talek gate and borders the Masai Mara. The camp overlooks the Talek River with hippos and crocodiles below. Aruba Mara Camp is a beautiful budget establishment, clean rooms, cold drinks and good food.

Aruba Mara Camp is only 100 kilometers from Narok town. Best way to get to the camp is through Sekenani Gate and then go towards Talek Gate. Through the Talek Gate turn left. Aruba Mara Camp is a few hundred meters on the left. There is also a campsite, and you can use the camp restaurant for food if you do not want to cook. www.crocodileracers.com

Aruba Mara Camp has 5 comfortably furnished tents which have the following features:

- Brick bathroom
- Furnished wooden deck
- All day running hot water
- Large double bed and mosquito net
- Tents are all about 60 square meters
- Aruba Mara Camp tents have a river view and enjoy fantastic views in the Park

Aruba Mara Camp has a campsite for campers. Aruba Mara Camp site is located in a large area shaded by trees. In addition to ample space for your tent, the camp also provides small tents with thatched roof and small porch.

For groups up to 40 guests, Aruba will provide a private and peaceful East Camp site. The camp has small tents at reasonable prices and they have the following features:

- Bed for 2 Guests
- Hot showers and toilets at the camp site