

Elsa's Kopje luxury Camp is located within Meru National Park (390 Km's from Nairobi) - northeast of Nairobi (7 miles north of the Equator) and about 5 hours of driving from Nairobi. Schedule flight from Nairobi takes about 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Elsa's Kopje luxury lodge is stylishly and competently run, and the standard of cuisine is very good. You can enjoy walks, drives during the day in open vehicles and night drives when you can expect to see nocturnal creatures, such as honey badger, porcupine and even aardvark. You could also try a spot of fishing. Elsa's Kopje is almost invisible to the eye as you approach its home on Mughwango Hill. It blends into the rocky crags of the "kopje" (small hill), built above the site of George Adamson's original campsite. Every cottage is the ultimate 'room-with-a-view', uniquely designed and crafted, incorporating the natural features of the rocky hillside.

Elsa's Kopje luxury Camp is named after Elsa the lioness, made famous by George and Joy Adamson's biographical book and film "Born Free". Elsa's Kopje remains one of the most elegant lodges in Africa, with one of the most spectacular settings. Meru National Park one of the best parks to view rhino in their natural habitat in Kenya. Meru National Park is located east of Mount Kenya, and because it receives good rainfall it has attractive bush vegetation and a number of rivers. There is long grass, riverine forests and beautiful tall doum palms. The area is home to unusual species such as reticulated giraffe, grevy's zebra and gerenuk as well as a good range of plains game, elephant, lion and cheetah, and over 300 bird species.
