

Stephanie Sea House overlooks the loveliest stretch of beach in the Malindi National Marine Park. A series of coral reefs of exceptional beauty in an unspoilt seascape disturbed only by the sailboats of Malindi fishermen gliding noiselessly by.

There is a salt water swimming pool right on the magnificent beach, surf boarding, canoeing, billiards, table tennis, illuminated clay tennis courts, a film library and a diving centre. www.crocodileracers.com

Immersed in a tropical garden full of typical colours and perfumes, the village is made of 50 Kenyan style cottages with all modern comforts, including air conditioning, fan, mini-bar, strongbox, independent verandah and bathroom with hot and cold water.

You can participate in various sport while housing in Stephanie sea house. These include, beach volleyball, tennis, kite surf, diving- there are PADI instructors available to give lessons, depth fishing, excursions for those who wish to remain in the hotel and horse back riding.
