

Safari Beach Hotel offers a unique blend of international hospitality in an African atmosphere of village style living amongst lush tropical gardens. It is located 20 miles south of Mombasa, and is at the edge of Kenya's famous Diani Beach, with its brilliant white sands, overlooking the warm blue Indian Ocean. Safari Beach was built in 1986; it was remodeled in 1990 and 1994.

Safari Beach Hotel is rated as a 4 star accommodation.

Safari Beach Hotel Accommodation

Safari Beach comprises of seven double-storeyed villages of thatched rondavels. All these have 4 beautifully furnished air-conditioned bedrooms, each with 4 feet beds, bathroom and a separate shower.

All rooms overlook the extensive gardens. All seven villages are each named after Kenya's most famous game parks.

All rooms come with following: radio, telephone, mini-bar and private terrace or balcony.

Many of the rooms have connecting doors for the convenience of families.

Safari Beach Hotel Dining

The famous Village Restaurant enjoys a reputation for excellent cuisine serving mouth watering seafood and tropical fruits.

The Island Grill and Lobsteria Restaurant are ideal locations for candle lit dinners and the lounges and bars offer comfort and relaxation to end the day in perfection.

An ice-cream parlor and Poolside Brasserie further add to the hotel's choice of culinary delights.

Safari Beach Hotel Swimming And Sports

The hotel boasts two sparkling swimming pools, one of which is at the Sports Center, where the energetic can also enjoy floodlit tennis courts, squash courts, gymnasium and massage parlor.

A coral reef provides safe, protected bathing and, at low tide, a wonderland of pools with many species of tropical fish..

Safari Beach Hotel Night Out, Entertainment And Shopping

In the evenings, watch live shows including performances by local tribal groups.

Dance the night away to the rhythm of popular bands. The hotel has a shopping arcade and its own Safari Sands Club, which has satellite TV and video shows and is linked with Jadini Beach Hotel and Africana Sea Lodge by a half-hourly shuttle bus.