

Kinondo Kwetu Hotel is situated on the south coast of Kenya, 1 ½ hours ride south from Mombasa, on the beach of the Indian Ocean. With room for no more than 38 guests, you will always find your own private spot at Kinondo Kwetu, which makes it a very special hideaway for honeymooners.

Kinondo Kwetu Hotel is the perfect place to gather family or friends for a private celebration or wedding. With two kitchens in separate buildings, the place can easily be divided into two, making it possible for companies of 10-20 or 30-40 to stay for themselves. It is also the ideal spot for corporate retreats.

On the grounds, you find two pools, one of them with a depth that allows training for PADI diving certificate, three horses, and, from February 2008, a tennis court. Kinondo Kwetu's dhow and outriggers are out on the water, waiting to take you sailing.

Kinondo Kwetu and its operation are working in harmony with the village Kinondo and its inhabitants, many of which are working at the hotel. In order to facilitate the life of the villagers we have founded Kinondo Kwetu Foundation. Kinondo Kwetu Hotel nearest International Airport is Moi Mombasa, 1 ½ hours away. The nearest airstrip is Ukunda only 10 minutes away.

The nearness to Ukunda airstrip makes Kinondo Kwetu the ideal beach visit when you want to combine your safari with a beach vacation. Crocodile Racers Safaris can arrange for a private charter to take you directly to Kinondo Kwetu Retreat.

Kinondo Kwetu Retreat enjoys all year round perfect sunny holiday weather except for the rainy season from May to mid July. Medical: There are two private clinics in Diani; about 15 minutes drive from Kinondo Kwetu Retreat.
