

Batian's View Guest House Naromoru derives its name from the majestic Batian Peak, the highest point on Mt. Kenya. Nestled in a riverine forest along the Naromoru River, Batian offers comfortable budget accommodation within a naturally and culturally diverse environment on the western slopes of Mt Kenya. You can bring your own food and beverages to prepare your own meals or have the resident staff do the cooking for you. Daily cleaning is provided and for an additional charge you can have your laundry done each day as well.
