Timau River Lodge cabins are numbered alphabetically based on animal names. Campsites located amongst trees at the top of a very pretty waterfall, where geese and ducks wander around.

Timau River Lodge is in an idyllic setting with a whole range of animals roaming free throughout – Peacocks, Ducks, Geese, Tortoises, Guinea Fowls etc. The lodge is also close to Mount Kenya so guests are able to enjoy good views.

Timau River Lodge has a restaurant specializing in Indian cuisine including Indian curries and vegetarian meals. There is a bar with fireplace and pool table, electricity is provided by a generator from kerosene lamps are available at other times. Local guides can take guests on walks through the forest and to local villages.

The lodge is a base for climbing Mount Kenya through Chogoria route. The Timau Track, the main access route on the north side of the mountain lies in a major rain shadow. Because of this there is a very little forest on this side of the mountain.

However since you are inside a low rainfall zone it generally makes for a drier safari and a more pleasant trek. Timau River Lodge is at 2240 meters in altitude, so the evenings can be particularly cool, so you definitely need to have warm clothing.
