

Whistling Thorns Lodge & Camp Kiserian Ngong Nairobi is a quiet, homely, informal kind of place with emphasis on the outdoors. A lovely spot to chill out: grand view of the Ngong Hills, open plains, game, birds and peace and quiet. Yet not too far from Nairobi. The camp is run by Mike and Marie Louise, this little place has character and a nice location but you should not expect any frills. Whistling Thorns is a small, quiet and peaceful place where people come to relax. It is located on the Kiserian-Isenya Pipeline road, overlooking the Ngong Hills.

If you are looking for a get-away not far from Nairobi (private, quiet and romantic) Whistling Thorns is the place. Whistling Thorns is one hour from Nairobi, and 1 hour and 15 minutes from the airport, and a great place to acclimatize before a safari, or chill out after one.
