

Kifaru House in Karen Nairobi is a charming and elegant guest house located in an unpretentious home-like and serene atmosphere away from the hassles and bustles of the city. It is situated on Milima road, Karen Hardy. We focus on our attention to personal service. We endeavor to have our guests well taken care of, ensuring them an excellent stay and tasty, sumptuous meals. The house is well furnished with excellent, adequate and efficient facilities. On display in each room are beautiful works of African art among them snare arts made by reformed poachers who live adjacent to protected areas in Kenya

We are a home away from home, a haven that gives you much needed peace of mind that you can customize to be your home. Peacefully tucked away in a natural abode near the city yet far from its traffic, the guest house offers accommodation and day retreats for families, individuals and groups. The facility can also be used as a prayer retreat area. www.crocodileracers.com

Kifaru house was purposely named after the Rhino as all the proceeds made from the guest house are used to promote animal welfare and conservation work through the Africa Network for Animal Welfare (ANAW). ANAW works together with communities and stakeholders in promoting humane treatment of farm, wild and companion animals through compassion, care, appreciation and protection.
