

Tigoni Homestay Limuru Kenya is a country home located in the lush green tealands of central Kenya near the well reknown Brackenhearst Baptist. The home style accommodation offers peace and comfort; the accommodation is spacious with en suite bathrooms for a maximum of 10 home stay guests. Open beamed ceilings, natural woodwork, log fires in the lounges and views over one of the last pockets of indigenous forest, complement the serenity and style of Tigoni house.

Accommodation & Room Types

There house is an expansive farm house in the cool Kenyan highlands. The Tigoni area has a cool climate similar to that in the temperate regions of Europe. The house is made of brick and mortar and roofing by red earthen tiles. It is an old Elizabethan house that has been renovated to improve its appeal. The house has 4 large bedrooms and a master ensuite. The standard 4 bedrooms share 2 bathrooms while the master bedroom includes a separate one
