

Rurigi House Runda Gigiri Nairobi Kenya a home away from home is a serene environment for those who desire alternative accommodation from the conventional hotels. It is a big house with modern fittings, designed to offer comfort and warmth to every guest. It is also tastefully furnished with parquet flooring and ceramic tiles for wet areas. It is positioned such that it allows enough morning light to filter into the rooms and this makes it very comfortable and relaxing too.

Rurigi House is a modern house set in an idyllic part of Nairobi, Gigiri. Gigiri is a fifteen-minute drive from the city centre and is the favoured locale for International organizations such as the Africa regional headquarters of the United Nations (UNON) including the UNEP, UNDP, UNESCO, WFP, Habitat etc. The US and Canadian embassies as well as a host of other diplomatic corps and corporate executives are also resident here in Gigiri. It is an urban area with access to modern facilities such as the prestigious Village Market shopping complex with plush restaurants, banks, cinemas and many more social amenities.

Rurigi Guest House Kitchen Rurigi Guest House Living area

Living, dining and bar area:

This is quite exquisite with high ceilings and attractive lighting. The living room has a warm and friendly ambience and it flows into the large dining room which also doubles as the bar area. In one corner there's a computer (with high speed Internet access) available for guests. This room opens to a balcony where again, one can enjoy the calmness of the outdoors. www.crocodileracers.com

Kitchen:

This house has two kitchens. The main kitchen is on the upper floor and this is essentially the area where all meals are prepared. It is quite spacious and has a breakfast area. The other one (situated on the ground floor) is available for self catering guests. Both kitchens have modern kitchen equipment.

Bedrooms:

There are eight(8) bedrooms all en-suite and tastefully furnished. Four of the rooms have both a bath and a shower and the other three have a shower area only. There's a good supply of hot water here.

Every bedroom is fitted with a TV. There's a telephone connected to all rooms. A mini fridge is also available on request.

The garden:

The lawn is well-tended and it has a variety of shrubs. It is a pleasant place to relax and enjoy the Sunday lunch barbeque.

Security:

Gigiri area is the heart of the diplomatic circuit and as such the Diplomatic Police arm of the Kenya Police offer round the clock security support. None-the-less Rurigi house is surrounded by a perimeter wall with an electric fence. Any visitors coming in can be seen at the gate through a mini TV on the intercom and we have both day and night guards on duty.
