

Fahari Guest House Nairobi is a luxury and comfortable hotel in Westlands not far from the city center and approximately 20 kilometers from Jomo Kenyatta International Airport. Fahari Guest House Nairobi is located within a quite suburb of Westlands, along Rhapta road and is 400 metres away from the town center where one can easily access the shopping malls and banks. It is set in a leafy street that can be good for anyone who would like to take an evening walk.

Rates range from USD 500 per Week

Property Details

Fahari Guest House combines the pleasant authenticity of Nairobi as a modern African city with its own truly unique beauty and hospitality towards all cultures. It is a serene bed and breakfast accommodation facility in Westlands, Nairobi. Nestled between residential neighborhoods and several out-of-town offices, the hustle and bustle noisy din characteristic of town areas is missing. It is a 10 minutes' walk to the active Westlands Shopping centre. Fahari is a favored destination for both business and pleasure travelers.

Fahari is a haven of birdlife, with resident birds such as Sunbirds, Weaver birds and Kites

Features:

Fahari Guest House features a restaurant and a bar/lounge. Guest parking is complimentary. Additional property amenities include laundry facilities.

Guestrooms:

There are 10 guestrooms at Fahari Guest House. Rooms are individually decorated. Wireless Internet access is complimentary. www.crocodileracers.com

