

Kikuyu Lodge Hotel Nairobi Kenya is a new building in a traditional style sits in a semi rural setting offering bright spacious en-suite rooms, each furnished in its individual style with easy chairs or sofa and coffee table. There are also interconnecting doors for families or groups. These east facing rooms benefit from the beautiful equatorial sunrise and breakfast is served either in the restaurant with its east facing French doors or on the patio.

The front timber deck being perfect in the afternoons for sunning and taking a cool drink watching the sunset, free tea and coffee are available all day to guests.

The well stocked garden is fine for a quiet read, sunbathing or watching the many visiting birds. There is also a TV Lounge and the restaurant serves Western and local dishes as well as catering for vegetarians or other special tastes food being an important part of a comfortable visit. www.crocodileracers.com