

The Bounty Hotel is situated in South B estate, along Mukoma Road - about 5 kilometers away from the Kenyatta International Conference Centre - KICC. The hotel is located a short six kilometers from the International Airport. The Bounty Hotel has a total of one hundred rooms in self contained singles and doubles. The rooms have color televisions and telephones.

The Bounty Hotel's cabin restaurant offers an international cuisine while the Cabin Bar provides a relaxing social environment and a selection of local and international brands. There is an exclusive resident bar and two resident lounges as well as satellite television in the public areas. Conference facilities are available as well as a business center providing internet, fax, copier and other secretarial services. www.crocodileracers.com