

Shalom House offers African Hospitality for business, workshops, conferences, seminars and lectures. It also houses accommodation facilities that are budget friendly. Located just off Ngong Road, only 7km from Nairobi City Centre and only a 35 minutes drive from Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, it is the ideal place to be away from the busy and noisy environment of the city centre. At a minimal fee, you will enjoy high speed wireless broadband internet (WIFI) be it in your room, in the conference halls, at the garden or in the restaurant.

There are 5 conference rooms; 2 can comfortably accommodate 80 participants each and 2 can accommodate 20 participants each. They are ideal for conferences, seminars, workshops, group meetings and corporate functions. The two big meeting places have wireless internet, Simultaneous translation services and state of the art audio visual and media equipment are available upon request. There is a garden for break-outs and team building activities.

Shalom House is an initiative of Koinonia Community, a lay Christian organization. It houses a documentation centre on peace and reconciliation in Africa and various associations promoting a culture of peace such as Koinonia Action for Peace and Koinonia Advisory Research & Development Services.
