

Nairobi Mamba Village Mokoyeti Resort Karen is located in Nairobi's leafy Karen suburb about 13 kilometers away from the hustle and bustle of Kenya's capital city. It's a replica of natural paradise spread over 30 acres, complete with 4-star lounge and several restaurants, with seating capacity for more than 500 guests at a time. Besides the main and island restaurants, numerous bandas meant to provide privacy and quiet seclusion can each comfortably seat 10 guests.

Mamba Village is famous for its Crocodile Farm. The pens are home to an estimated 70 Nile crocodiles. Four Maasai Ostriches can also be found strutting around their pen with grace. Visitors often come into direct personal contact with them when given the opportunity to feed these gallant birds. The experience is always satisfying and exciting especially for children.
