The Kentmere Club is a Country hotel that enjoys the peace and tranquility of a country Inn atmosphere. Kentmere Club hotel has a well stocked bar, a wine cellar and a traditional restaurant, the cuisine being French oriented. Kentmere Club hotel started way back in the late 1920s as Club, where Members of shooting range nearby then went for a good Lunch or dinner.

The Means of Transport was horses and chariots. The Club has changed ownership severally, with the present ownership having taken up the management of the club from 1986. The Club aims at giving a homely atmosphere, away from home and giving an atmosphere that is conducive to a retreat, romance, or just simply a rest from the hectic life of today.

Kentmere Club has a membership of about 600 Members. Kentmere Club has 16 Rooms with a bed capacity of 34 Guests. All the rooms are self contained set out in the lavish gardens and every room has fireplace to kill out the cold Limuru Nights.
