

Ithumba Camp Tsavo East Kenya is located in Tsavo East National park situated between the bush and Acacia trees along the Galana River. The Ithumba Camp is owned by the David Sheldrick wildlife trust. The Camp is fully fenced because there are so many wild elephants around the camp.

Accommodation

Has four big safari tents with makuti roof on each of them. www.crocodileracers.com

Facilities

- Restaurant with a small roof terrace where one can view small animals and birds which come to drink water.
- Lounge