

Ndololo Safari Camp enjoys one of the most spectacular sceneries in Tsavo East. Kenya's preserved game renowned for its concentration of diverse wildlife and home to the fabled "Man Eaters of Tsavo. The luxurious Ndololo Safari Tented Camp lies on the broad, thickly forested banks of Voi River in Tsavo East National park.

Ndololo Safari Camp accessible throughout the year by all weather roads and is located 7 kilometers from Voi gate, 63 kilometers from Buchama gate and 36 kilometers from Manyani gate.

This exclusive camp offers 20 luxurious, well-spaced tents each self contained with a Verandah and bedroom. Some of the tents have single, double and triple bed's to cater for different tastes.

All are furnished in a classic blend of ancient and modern, rich African fine hand carved olive wood furniture, with modern amenities. Ndololo Safari Camp offers unsuited facilities fully equipped kitchen, dining room where well prepared and delicious cuisine is served and a well equipped bar serving a variety of drinks. Bush barbeques are also served. The reception center offers a variety of African curios, books and mementos.

The indigenous forests around Ndololo Safari Camp are home to the big five wild animals, including the elephant's, the buffalo's, the rhino's, the lion's and the leopard's.

The area is also frequented by ostrich's, zebra's, giraffe's and many more safari animals, while the trees are filled with melodies of a wide variety of birds.

After checking in from the evening game drive, Ndololo Safari Camp visitors take dinner where they share the rich history of Tsavo National Park, the stories of famous man eaters of Tsavo, African culture and general information on Kenya with the very experienced staff of the camp. Visitors are also get information on safety measures while at the camp.