

The Crooked House Watamu Kenya is set on the South side of Kilifi Creek. The Crooked House is one of three guesthouses set overlooking the magnificent entrance to the creek, commanding spectacular views of the Indian Ocean, with direct access to sandy coves. The recently refurbished house is set over two floors and faces East, overlooking the entrance to Kilifi Creek. It has the ambience of a Mediterranean villa with stunning views from both the gardens as well as the upstairs verandah. A paved patio perched on the creek cliff allows the perfect opportunity to watch the Jahazi dhows returning from their day's catch as the sun sets.

All four bedrooms in the house large double rooms with Kingsize 4-poster beds, mosquito nets, overhead fans and en-suite bathrooms.

The inside sitting room has banquette seating, there is a dining room, a cool and fully equipped kitchen and a rear 'Tuscany' courtyard also with banquette seating, a pergola and exotic palm foliage, ideal for Alfresco dining. The house is fully staffed including cook. www.crocodileracers.com

The property sleeps a maximum of 8 guests including children.
